

Richmond Hill Baptist Church and Senior Pastor Profile

Richmond Hill Baptist Church, in Calgary, Alberta, is a vibrant, Christ-centred community representing multiple generations, cultures, and languages. Reflecting Calgary's rich international demographic, it is situated in the diverse and dynamic southwest quadrant of the city.

After 22 fruitful years of ministry, our beloved senior pastor accepted the call to serve as a regional ministry leader in our convention. We are prayerfully seeking a man of God's choosing to shepherd and lead our congregation into the next chapter.

Approximately 400 people consider RHBC their spiritual home, including 220 active members, with an average weekly attendance of 250. Our facility is debt-free with space for education and fellowship and includes a dedicated worship centre that seats up to 450. Our building also hosts Arabic and Chinese congregations, a preschool, and serves as a hub for denominational and community events.

Our Convictions

We are passionate about "Connecting with God, His Word, His Church and His Mission." We value connection, participation, celebration, multiplication, and simplification. Our theological convictions align with the Statement of Faith of the Canadian National Baptist Convention.
